"THE PLAY THAT GOES WRONG"

Lyceum Theatre, Broadway

Winner of the Olivier Award in London for Best New Comedy, The Play That Goes Wrong is a classic murder mystery chock-full of mishaps and more madcap mania than a Monty Python marathon! The Play That Goes Wrong follows the antics of the Cornley Polytechnic Drama Society, who are trying their very best to stage a production of a 1920s murder mystery where things are quickly going from bad to utterly disastrous. As the show's title might suggest, this is not as easy as it sounds with everything that can go wrong doing just that. Despite the setbacks, the actors struggle bravely to reach the final curtain. This 1920s whodunit has everything you never wanted in a Broadway show – a ramshackle set, an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that can't play dead, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines). This backstage look at the world of live theatre will show you just how hilarious it can be when everything that can go wrong.....does. The Play That Goes Wrong is guaranteed to leave you aching with laughter. We'll enjoy a delicious lunch at Le Rivage Restaurant before the show.

CHINA'S TERRACOTTA ARMY

Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, PA

Step back in time to ancient china and explore the mystery and wonder of China's Terracotta Warriors. In March 1974, a group of peasants digging a well in drought-parched Shaanxi province in northwest China unearthed fragments of a clay figure—the first evidence of what would turn out to be one of the greatest archaeological discoveries of modern times. Near the unexcavated tomb of Qin Shi Huangdi—who had proclaimed himself first emperor of China in 221 B.C.—lay an extraordinary underground treasure: an entire army of life-size terra cotta soldiers and horses, interred for more than 2,000 years. China's Terracotta Army comes to the Franklin Institute featuring the largest collection of artifacts related to the warrior emperor, alongside life-sized terracotta figures from the pits of the First Emperor's Terracotta Army. The exhibit showcases real figures from the terracotta army and over 100 artifacts from the first millennium BC, on loan from more than a dozen archaeological institutes and museums in Shaanxi Province. Complete your experience with the IMAX documentary, Mysteries of China which captures one of the great archaeological events in modern times. We'll have lunch at Positano Coast Restaurant before the museum.
